DAYTON, Ohio, October 29, 1969 --- Over 2,000 high school students from the Dayton and Cincinnati areas will be visiting the University of Dayton within an eight day period, beginning November 1 and extending through November 8.

Saturday, November 1, UD's School of Education will sponsor a Teacher Career Conference from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. The purpose of the program is to acquaint the students with the rewards and difficulties they will face upon entering the teaching profession; and also to make them aware of the facilities and programs that are available at UD.

A full day of activities is being planned which will include general meetings, interaction groups, tours of the campus and an opportunity to see the Dayton vs. Xavier football game as guests of the University. The principal speaker for the program will be Dr. John R. O'Donnell, chairman of the Department of School Administration.

In conjunction with the Kettering Scholarship Fund, the Physical Education Department at UD is sponsoring Career Day, Wednesday, November 5. From 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., students from approximately 95 schools in the Dayton and surrounding area, will partake in a program stressing the area of physical education. This will include classroom visitation, discussions and lectures.

Saturday, November 8, high school students interested in teaching business subjects, careers in secretarial work, or in various phases of business administration will attend High School Career Day from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in Miriam Hall, O'Leary Auditorium. The program will include talks by prominent business leaders and business teachers in the Dayton Metropolitan area. University students will also have a part in the program and in addition, there will be a tour of the campus.
